

WA Data Linkage Branch

Applying for and using linked data

Applicant workshop

The Data Linkage Branch now offers a tailored training course for researchers and other applicants interested in applying for linked data. Both new and experienced researchers can benefit from the course designed to help them make the most of this resource by providing insights into:

- the data linkage process
- the preparation of data
- the datasets available to researchers
- ethical considerations
- the application process

By the end of the course we hope you will:

- Understand the roles of DLB, Custodians and DOH HREC
- Understand the application for linked data process
- Understand the data governance framework
- Understand the obligations of researchers
- Feel comfortable navigating the application process
